

SchoolDataDirect.org

A Service of CCSSO's State Education Data Center

SchoolDataDirect.org provides current and historical data as well as the tools you need to inform decisions, drive reform, and conduct quality research on public schools and districts — from a single website!

With information for all 50 states, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia

Educators, researchers and policymakers can access and download comprehensive data on:

- Student Performance
- District Spending, Revenue, and Taxes
- College Prep
- School Environment
- Community Demographics
- Metadata About Each State's Education Data

www.SchoolDataDirect.org

SchoolDataDirect.org – Why should access to timely high quality data be limited to those in business?

Take advantage of the following SchoolDataDirect.org tools and features:

Data Download Tool

Download the data directly from the website into a spreadsheet or statistical analysis software to conduct research with comprehensive quality data.

Advanced Search Tool

Locate schools or districts that fit certain criteria, including location and performance.

Better Performers Tool

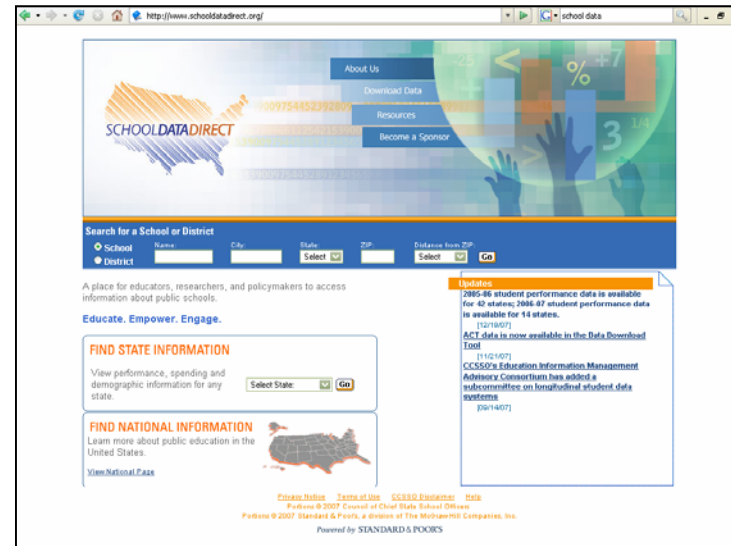

Identify higher performing schools or school districts based on a number of different indicators.

Create Your Own Table

Develop your own customized table with only the school or school district information you want.

Quick Compare Tool

Create side-by-side comparisons for up to 5 schools and school districts and review only the information you want to see.

In one place...free, downloadable, comprehensive state education data

www.SchoolDataDirect.org

Portions © 2007 Council of Chief State School Officers
Portions © 2007 Standard & Poor's, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc.
SchoolDataDirect.org is a project of the Council of Chief State School Officers' State Education Data Center and was created to help transform the way education information is used by educators, policymakers, and researchers. The State Education Data Center is generously funded by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.